GRANT PERIOD 2024-2025

DISSEMINATION & STSM GRANTS - GRANT PERIOD 2024-2025

ENIS COST Action "European Network on International Student Mobility: Connecting Research and Practice" is happy to announce the opening of its last call for applications for the Dissemination and STSM grants – Grant period 2024-2025.

Dissemination Grant

Scope:

These dissemination grants consist of financial support to ENIS members to present an output emerging from their collaboration within the action, at a conference, for raising the visibility of the network. Only oral presentations are accepted.

Eligibility criteria:

The application must foresee the presentation of individual papers co-authored by at least two Action members, and must arise from work that was initiated within the Action.

The presentation should clearly connect to the Actions main topics:

- WG1: Global ISM flows and trends at the macro level;
- WG2: Social inequalities in access to and during ISM;
- WG3: The social and cultural integration of international students in their hostcountries;
- WG4: The impact of ISM on graduates' careers.
- WG5: Bridging research and practice in ISM

Evaluation Criteria

Alignment of presentation to the goals of the Dissemination to the Action's objective (2 points)

Expected impact for the Action visibility (1 points)

Relevance of the event to the Action (2 point).

STSM Grant

Scope: Short Term Scientific Missions (STSM) grants facilitate and support the mobility of individuals for intensive collaboration in the following areas

- Collaboration between practitioners and scientists: Fostering the development of outputs such as articles, book chapters, policy briefs, manuals, or training tools, and research projects that bridge the gap between research and practice.
- Advancing systematic reviews: Contributing to the progression of systematic reviews on key topics related to the Action.
- Policy development: Supporting the creation of policy briefs focused on specific ISM topics covered by the Action.

Content and focus:

Applications should be linked (content-wise) to the field of international student mobility and offer concrete recommendations for ISM practice to inform policymakers, practitioners in higher education institutions, and study abroad organizations or to support the promotion of new knowledge on the topic of ISM.

Number of grants available:

Four (4)

Financial Support:

1500 euros per application.

Dissemination grant virtual events: only the registration fee up to a maximum of 300 euros.
