GRANT PERIOD 2022-2023

FAMILY TOP-UP GRANTS - GRANT PERIOD 2022-2023

ENIS COST Action "European Network on International Student Mobility: Connecting Research and Practice" is happy to announce the opening of its first call for gender equality top-up grants – Grant period 2022-2023.

Scope:

Family top-up grants are part of the ENIS Gender Equality Plan (GEP) and it aims to support scholars with caring responsibility to participate in the in-person mobility schemes foreseen by our Action.

Number of grants:

Four (4)

Financial Support:

300 euros for each application.

Eligibility:

Members with caring responsibilities (children or adults in need of assistance).

Evaluation Criteria

A statement indicating how the top-up grant would help you to conciliate your family-work responsibilities for the travel

Priorities:

Gender balance will be taken into account;
Young researchers and innovators (under 40 years old);
Researchers from inclusiveness target countries (ITC);

Application:

The request for the family top-up grant should be sent together with the grant application via the E-cost system.

Obligations:

Grantees and host researchers commit to writing a post on how the family top-grant supported the referred mobility scheme for the social media network.

Clarifications:

The grants are not intended to cover all caring-related costs involved during the mobility period. It is solely extra financial provision to promote gender equality within our Action by supporting scholars with caring responsibilities to participate in the foreseen mobility schemes.
