GRANT PERIOD 2024-2025

SHORT TERM SCIENTIFIC MISSION GRANT (STSM) - GRANT PERIOD 2024-2025

Call update: Increase in the Number of Grants and Deadline Extension for STSM Grants

ENIS COST Action "European Network on International Student Mobility: Connecting Research and Practice" is happy to announce an increase in the number of grants available and an extension of the application deadline for the second call of the Short Term Scientific Missions (STSM) grants – Grant period 2024-2025.

Scope:

Short Term Scientific Missions (STSM) grants facilitate and support the mobility of individuals for intensive collaboration in the following areas:

- Collaboration between practitioners and scientists: Fostering the development of outputs such as articles, book chapters, policy briefs, manuals, or training tools, and research projects that bridge the gap between research and practice.
- Advancing systematic reviews: Contributing to the progression of systematic reviews on key topics related to the Action.
- Policy development: Supporting the creation of policy briefs focused on specific ISM topics covered by the Action.

Content and focus:

Applications should be linked (content-wise) to the field of international student mobility and offer concrete recommendations for ISM practice to inform policymakers, practitioners in higher education institutions and study abroad organisations or to be linked to the general systematic reviews assigned to the four thematic working groups (WG).

Number of grants:

Additional grants in the extension call: Four (4)

Financial Support:

1500 euros for each application.

Applicants from an ITC can request for pre-payment of 50% of the grant.

Eligibility:

The application must include at least one of the following:

- A practitioner, policymaker or a study abroad organization working on topics relevant to ISM field, and an academic in the field of ISM (e.g., PhD student, post-doctoral researcher, senior researcher, lecturer, or professor).
or
- A member involved in any of the relevant activities of the Action: the general systematic reviews, the policy briefs the podcast, etc.

In both cases, a support letter from the Working Group (WG) leader is required.

Evaluation Criteria

- Alignment of the goals of the STSM to the Action's objective (2 points)
- Expected impact of the STSMs (2 points)
- Sustainability of the cooperation (1 point).

Priorities:

- Young researchers and innovators (under 40 years old);
- Researchers from inclusiveness target countries (ITC);
- Gender balance will be taken into account.

Period:

STSM has to be carried out between 20 April and 30 September 2025.

Duration:

Minimum of three days (excluding the travelling days).

Timeline:

- Opening of the extension call: March 24, 2025
- Deadline for the extended application call: March 31, 2025
- Decision process and announcements of results: Up to a month after the close of the call.

How to apply?

A. Fill in STSM application form (template available on e-COST).
